Who knows you better, your family or your friends?

In our weekly 'test' single people who are looking for a partner ask their mother and their best friend to help. Their mother chooses one partner and their best friend chooses another. The test is to see who can choose the best partner!

This week's single man is Richard Taylor, a 26-year-old musician from Southampton. His mother Meg chooses one girl, and his best friend Danny chooses another. Then Richard goes on a date with each girl. Which girl does he prefer? Who knows him better, his mother or his best friend? Who chooses the right girl for him?

Richard Taylor with his mother Meg and his friend Danny

I usually work in England but sometimes I work abroad too. When I'm not working I like going to the cinema and eating in nice restaurants. I'm not very sporty and I don't do any exercise, but at least I don't smoke.

I think I'm open and friendly – I get on well with most people – but I'm sometimes quite shy too. For example, I don't like going to parties. I prefer to meet friends individually or in small groups.

I like intelligent, funny women who make me laugh, and ideally who love music. Physically I prefer women with dark hair who are not taller than me. And I like women who are good listeners.

I'm sure that my friend Danny knows me better than my family because we often talk about girlfriends and the problems we have. I don't usually talk to my family about that kind of thing. My mum always says that I look for the wrong kind of girl but that's what mothers always say!

Subject: Hi from Argentina

Hi Daniel,

My name's Alessandra. It's an italian name, because my grandmother was from Italy, but I'm Argentinian and I live in Mendoza, a big city in the west of the country. I live with my parents and my two brothers. I have 19 years old, and I'm at university. I'm studing computer science. I'm in my first year and I really like it.

I'm going to tell you about myself. As you can see from the foto, I have long hair – it's quite fair – and greens eyes. I wear glasses, but I want to get contact lenses soon.

I think I'm a positive person. I'm quite extrovert and frendly. My mother says I'm very talkative – I think she mean that I talk too much!

In my free time I love reading and going to the cinema. But I dont have much free time becuase I have classes every day, and a lot of work to do even at weekends. I also go to English classes on friday afternoon.

Please write soon and tell me about you and your life.

Not next to me, please!

When you're travelling by plane or train, there are some passengers you just don't want to have next to you...

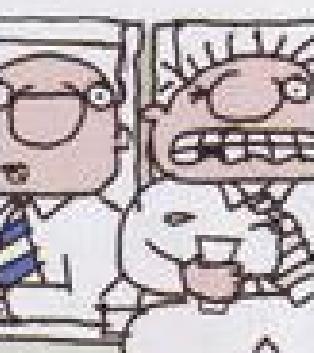

A

Perhaps you normally like them, but when you are sitting next to them on a plane it's a different thing. They usually spend all the flight moving around and ¹ dropping their toys on the floor, and when they're drinking their orange juice it ends up on your trousers. Then they decide they want to play with you, so you can't have the little siesta that you were planning.

B

You ² recognize this type as soon as you sit down. They immediately start talking about the plane, or the weather, or they ask you a personal question. It's very difficult not to talk to these people, and you'll probably have to continue talking until the plane ³ lands.

C

These are the people with white faces who sit down and immediately ask for a double whisky. Every five minutes they call a flight attendant to ask if there are any problems with the plane. They also tell you about air disasters (which you are not interested in!). The best thing to do is to buy them a few drinks or ⁴ pretend to sleep.

D

These people are not necessarily very big, but they have a terrible habit of taking up all their ⁵ room, and some of your room too. They usually sit so that you can't move, with their arms and legs in your space. They also have a lot of hand luggage which takes up all the room in the overhead locker.

C

Last week we asked you to tell us about a holiday when the destination was perfect but, for some reason, the time wasn't right... Here are some of your replies.

1 Tim, 20, student from Manchester

When I was a teenager I went on holiday with my parents to Brittany in France. My parents rented a lovely house on the beach, and the weather was great. But I was 17, and I didn't want to be on holiday with my mum and dad and my little brother. I wanted to be with my friends. We went to the beach every day and sunbathed and we went to a fantastic seafood restaurant for my birthday. But I was miserable and I hated every minute of it. I didn't smile once in two weeks. What really made me furious was that my parents let my older sister, who was 19, go to Spain with her friends.

2 Gabriela, 28, marketing manager from Rome

I'm from Rome and the summer here is really hot. So last year my husband and I decided to go to Sweden, to escape from the heat. We booked a 10-day holiday in Stockholm, where the temperature in the summer is normally about 20 degrees. But when we got to Stockholm there was a heatwave and it was 35 degrees every day. It was awful because there was no air-conditioning anywhere. We couldn't sleep at night – it was boiling in the hotel, and in the shops and museums too. We didn't want to go shopping or go sightseeing or do anything – we were too hot. We just sat in cafés and argued all day. We didn't need to go to Sweden to do that!

3 Kelly, 26, TV journalist from Belfast

Three years ago I broke up with my boyfriend and I decided to go on holiday on my own to the Seychelles. My travel agent told me that it was a wonderful place. But he didn't tell me that it was also a very popular place for people on their honeymoon. Everywhere I looked I saw couples holding hands and looking romantically into each other's eyes! The travel agent also said it was always sunny there – but the weather was terrible – it was cloudy and very windy. To pass the time I decided to do a diving course (one of my lifetime ambitions). But it was a complete disaster because the first time I went under the water I had a panic attack. I couldn't escape from the island so I spent an incredibly boring (and expensive) two weeks in 'paradise'.

2 In 1989, I was working in London on a story when suddenly I heard the news that the Russians were planning to make Berlin an open city. So I got on a plane. When I arrived in Berlin many people, young and old, were attacking the wall with stones. The woman in the photo was shouting, 'I hate it, I hate it.'

3 When I took this photo we were in a hotel room in Paris in 1964. John and Paul were at the piano and at first nothing much was happening, but suddenly they became completely focused. Soon posters and postcards with my picture of the two lovers were everywhere. But I never knew who the two young people were. They never contacted me.'

G The song became a hit again when Lennon died.
H The song became popular again after September 11th 2001.

6 2.10 SONG Imagine

Who wrote Imagine?

Imagine, John Lennon's most famous song, was recently voted 'Britain's favourite song of all time'. It's an idealistic song about peace and the hope for a better world.

'Imagine all the people living life in peace.' The song was a big hit in 1971, and again in 1980 when Lennon was murdered in New York. It became a hit for a third time after the terrorist attacks of September 11th 2001.

But who really wrote the song? Until recently the answer to this question was always John Lennon. But on a TV programme this week Lennon's wife, Yoko Ono, spoke for the first time about how she, in fact, helped to write the song.

Ono said that the idea and inspiration for Imagine came from some of her poems that John Lennon was reading at that time. The poems began with the word 'Imagine': 'Imagine a raindrop, Imagine a goldfish.' Ono said, 'When I was a child in Japan during the Second World War my brother and I were terribly hungry. I imagined delicious menus for him and he began to smile. If you think something is impossible, you can imagine it and make it happen.'

In an interview just before he died, Lennon admitted that Yoko deserved credit for Imagine. He said, 'A lot of it – the lyrics and the concept – came from her, from her book of poems, imagine this, imagine that.' Lennon said that he was 'too macho' to share the credit with her at the time.

Ono said that some of the song was written when they were flying across the Atlantic and the rest was written on the piano in their bedroom at their home in England. Ono said, 'The song speaks about John's dream for the world. It was something he really wanted to say.' Imagine became a popular song for peace activists everywhere.

In March 2002 the airport in his home town of Liverpool was re-named John Lennon Airport. A sign above the main entrance has a line from Imagine: 'Above us only sky'.

She was going very fast because she was in a hurry.

One October evening

1 READING

A Next day Jamie phoned Hannah and invited her to dinner. He took her to a very romantic French restaurant and they talked all evening. After that Jamie and Hannah saw each other every day. Every evening when Hannah finished work they met at 5.30 in a coffee bar in the High Street. They were madly in love.

B Suddenly, a man ran across the road. He was wearing a dark coat so Hannah didn't see him until it was too late. Although she tried to stop, she hit the man. Hannah panicked. She didn't stop and she drove to the coffee bar as fast as she could. But when she arrived Jamie wasn't there. She phoned him, but his mobile was turned off, so she waited for ten minutes and then went home.

C I Hannah met Jamie in the summer of 2004. It was Hannah's 21st birthday and she and her friends went to a club. They wanted to dance, but they didn't like the music so Hannah went to speak to the DJ. 'This music is awful,' she said. 'Could you play something else?' The DJ looked at her and said, 'Don't worry, I have the perfect song for you.'

D Two hours later a police car arrived at Hannah's house. A policewoman knocked at the door. 'Good evening, Madam,' she said. 'Are you Hannah Davis? I'd like to speak to you. Can I come in?'

E One evening in October, Hannah was at work. As usual she was going to meet Jamie at 5.30. It was dark and it was raining. She looked at her watch. It was 5.20! She was going to be late! She ran to her car and got in. At 5.25 she was driving along the High Street. She was going very fast because she was in a hurry.

F Two minutes later he said: 'The next song is by Coldplay. It's called Yellow and it's for a beautiful girl who's dancing over there.' Hannah knew that the song was for her because she was wearing a yellow dress. When Hannah and her friends left the club, the DJ was waiting at the door. 'Hi, I'm Jamie,' he said to Hannah. 'Can I see you again?' So Hannah gave him her phone number.

Mountain climbers rescued by text message

Two British climbers were rescued yesterday after sending an SOS text message to a friend in London.

Rachel Kelsey, 34, and her partner, Jeremy Colenso, 33, who are both experienced climbers, were on a climbing holiday last week in Switzerland. But on Saturday night, when they were 3,000 metres up in the mountains, there was a terrible storm. The wind was incredibly strong and the snow was two metres deep. They couldn't move and they had to spend the night on the mountain. Rachel had her mobile phone with her, so she sent a text message to five friends in the UK asking for help.

About four hours later, one of her friends, Avery Cunliffe in London, replied with a text message. Avery said, 'I don't usually have my mobile in the bedroom. At about 4 a.m. I woke up and saw Rachel's message. I found the number of the police in Switzerland and phoned them. They contacted the mountain rescue team.'

But the weather was so bad that the helicopter couldn't get to the two climbers. The rescue team sent a text message to Rachel and Jeremy telling them that they had to spend a second night on the mountain. The message said: 'So sorry Rachel. We tried. Wind too strong. Have to wait till morning. Take care. Be strong.' Rachel said, 'I thought we were going to die. It was freezing, -15°C, and really windy on the mountain. We spent the night talking and planning a holiday in the sun!'

Next morning the storm passed and the helicopter arrived to take them off the mountain. Avery said, 'When I heard that Rachel and Jeremy were safe I was dancing around my flat.' Rachel said that she and Jeremy were now looking forward to a hot bath and a good meal. But first they were going to buy the rescue team a bottle of whisky!

Heathrow airport near London is the busiest international airport in the world. Every day thousands of travellers arrive at Heathrow from many different countries. LOOKING FOR A JOB

Rima, 23, from Vilnius in LithuaniaWhy are you here?

secret	forget	exist
always	complete	dentist

promise	address	doctor
builder	journey

- b 3.9 Listen and check. Practise saying the words.

Promises, promises

We make them and we break them, because some promises are very hard to keep. Here are the top six most common broken promises ...

- 1
- You always hear this from builders, plumbers, and electricians. But the truth is very different. They won't come back until next week (or later). And you will probably need to phone them five times first.

- 2
- We love hearing secrets and we happily make this promise. And at the time we really mean it. 'Don't worry,' we say, 'your secret is safe with me.' But of course it isn't. Research shows that everybody will always tell one other person the secret. Very soon the whole street will know!

- 3
- A favourite phrase of doctors, dentists, and nurses. They usually say it just before they give you an injection. But the phrase is not complete. The full phrase is: 'This won't hurt me (but it will probably hurt you a lot).'

- You make a new friend on holiday or on a bus journey, you swap e-mail addresses, and you make this promise. Six months later you find a name and e-mail address on a card or an old piece of paper. 'Oh dear!' you think – but then you remember that they didn't write to you either!

- 5
- In Hamlet, Shakespeare told us never to borrow or lend money. He was right. When we lend people money they always make this promise, but then they forget. If we then ask for the money back, they think we are mean. If we don't ask, we never get the money back.

- 6
- Whitney Houston sang a song about this and every day, all over the world thousands of people make the same promise to each other. We know eternal love exists, but is this promise the most difficult one to keep of them all?

A

G present perfect (experience) + ever, never; present perfect or past simple?

V clothes

P vowel sounds

Have you ever been to that shop?

What did you buy?

From rags to riches

Have you ever been to a Zara store?

You probably have because it's one of the fastest-growing chains in the world. The person behind Zara is Amancio Ortega. He is the richest man in Spain, but very few people know his face. There are only two official photographs of him, and he rarely gives interviews. Although he is a multimillionaire businessman, he doesn't look like one – he doesn't like wearing suits or ties, and prefers to wear jeans and a shirt.

When he was young he worked as a shop assistant in a clothes store, but he always dreamed of having his own business. In 1963 he started a small company which made women's pyjamas. In 1975, at the age of 40, he opened his first clothes shop in La Coruña, a small city in north-west Spain, and named it Zara. Now you can find Zara shops all over the world, from New York to Moscow to Singapore. So why is Zara so successful?

The main reason is that Zara reacts incredibly quickly to the latest designer fashions, and produces clothes which are fashionable but inexpensive. Zara can make a new line of clothes in three weeks. Other companies normally take about nine months. The clothes also change from week to week – so customers keep coming back to see what's new. It produces 20,000 new designs a year – and none of them stay in the shops for more than a month.

So if you've seen a new jacket or skirt you like in a Zara store, hurry up and buy it, because it won't be there for long.

C Mr and Mrs Serrano argued with their children a lot. They told their children to leave home.

- e Do you think Mr and Mrs Serrano were right or wrong? Why? Do you think the story has a happy ending?

- f 4.7 Listen and check.

Problems with your teenage children?

Why not throw them out?

A What did the Serrano's boys do? In fact they didn't go very far from home. The oldest boy David went to live with his girlfriend and has just started work in her father's construction company. The youngest son has rented a flat near the family home (his mother paid the first month's rent only).

B So Maria and Mariano asked their sons to leave the family home in Zaragoza in Spain. But the two boys didn't want to go. Then, Mr and Mrs Serrano took an unusual decision – they went to court.

C Do you have rude and moody teenage children living in your house? Have you ever secretly wanted to throw them out? A Spanish couple, Mr and Mrs Serrano, from Zaragoza in Spain, have done exactly that.

D Maria and her husband Mariano lived with their two sons, David, 20 and Mariano, 18. 'The situation was impossible,' said Maria. 'We were always arguing, our children were treating our house like a hotel, and they weren't contributing anything. Also they weren't studying or looking for work. They were complaining all the time and insulting us. They didn't respect us. I love my children, but in the end it was ruining our lives.'

E Normally, under Spanish law parents do not have the right to make their children leave home. But in this case the judge decided that the situation in the Serrano family was 'intolerable'. He gave Mr and Mrs Serrano the right to tell their children to go.

Faster, faster!

1 GRAMMAR comparatives, as... as, less... than...

- Read it again and cross out the wrong word. According to James Gleick, today we...
 - work longer / shorter hours.
 - have more / less free time.
 - talk faster / more slowly.
 - are more relaxed / less relaxed.
 - will probably have longer / shorter lives than our parents.
- Complete the sentences with as or than. Then check with the text.
 - We sleep less _____ previous generations.
 - If we don't slow down, we won't live _____ long _____ our parents.
- p.132 Grammar Bank 4C. Read the rules and do the exercises.

2 PRONUNCIATION sentence stress

A Remember! -er, and unstressed words like a, and, as, and than have the sound /ə/

4.8 Listen and repeat the sentences.

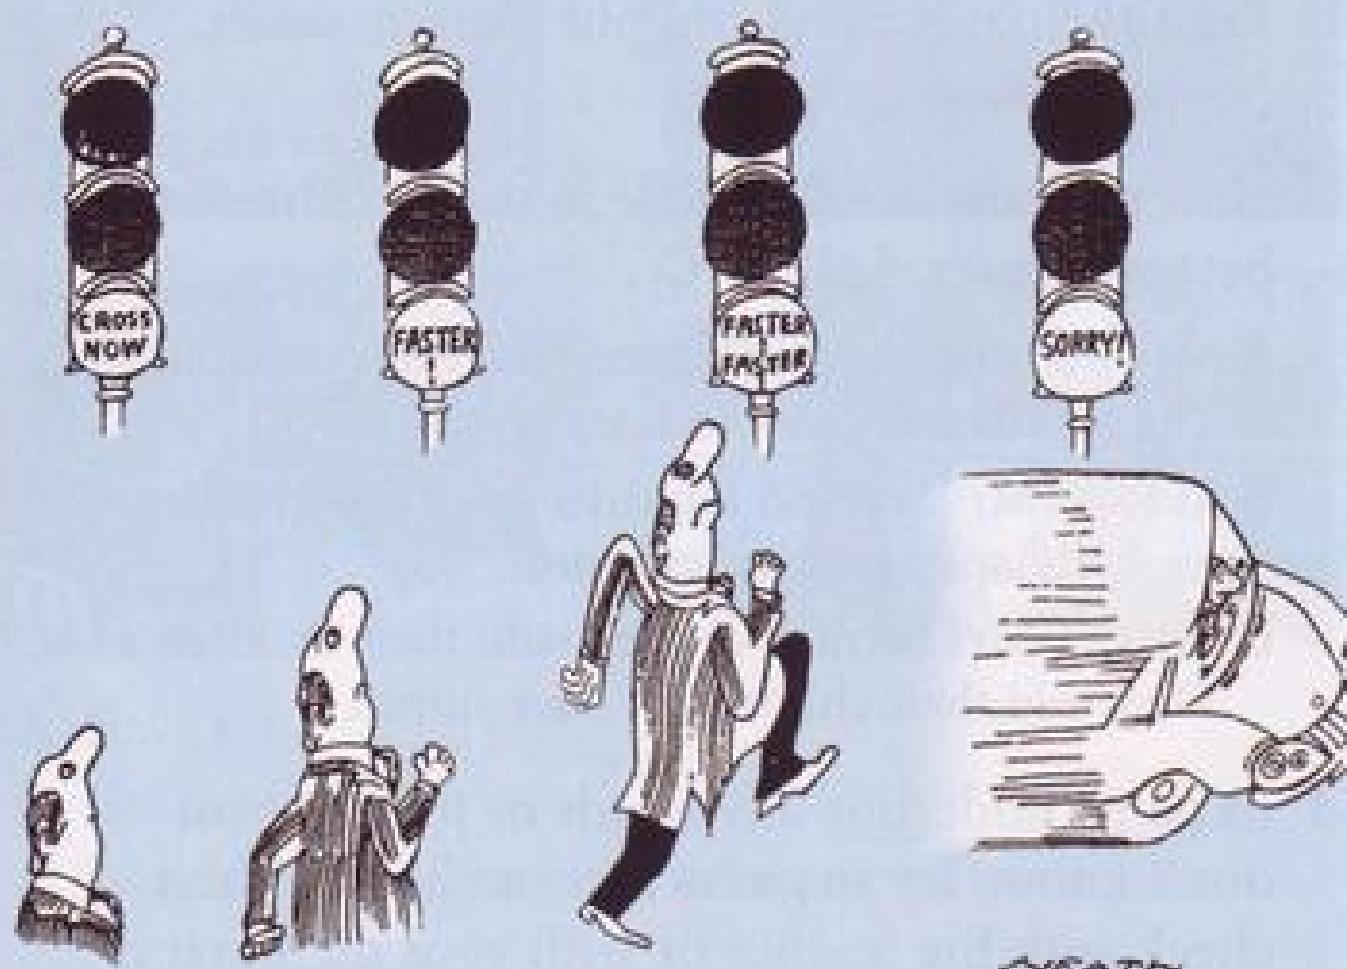

Copy the rhythm.

- I'm busier than a year ago.
- Life is more stressful than in the past.
- We work harder than before.
- We walk and talk faster.
- I'm not as relaxed as I was.
- We won't live as long as our parents.

3 READING & VOCABULARY

- You're going to read about some ways in which our lives are faster. Work in pairs. A read 1–3, B read 4–6.
- A tell B about paragraphs 1–3, B tell A about paragraphs 4–6. Use the pictures to help you. Are any of these things true in your country?
- Now read paragraphs 1–6. In pairs, look at the highlighted expressions with the word time and guess their meaning.

WE'RE LIVING FASTER

NOT LONG AGO people believed that in the future we would work less, have more free time, and be more relaxed. But sadly this has not happened. Today we work harder, work longer hours, and are more stressed than ten years ago. We walk faster, talk faster, and sleep less than previous generations. And although we are obsessed with machines which save us time, we have less free time than our parents and grandparents had. But what is this doing to our health? An American journalist James Gleick in a new book, Faster: the Acceleration of just about everything, says that people who live in cities are suffering from 'hurry sickness' – we are always trying to do more things in less time. As a result, our lives are more stressful. He says that if we don't slow down, we won't live as long as our parents. For most people, faster doesn't mean better.

4 LISTENING & SPEAKING

- a 4.9 Look at the questionnaire. Listen to four people answering question 1. Which activity (working, studying, etc.) are they talking about?

1 _____
2 _____
3 _____
4 _____

- b Listen again. Why do they spend more (or less) time on these things?

- c In pairs, interview each other using the questionnaire.

ARE YOU LIVING FASTER...?

- Compared to two years ago, do you spend more or less time on these things? Say why.

working or studying	sitting in traffic	cooking
talking on the phone	seeing friends	eating
working on a computer	shopping	sleeping
- Do you have more or less free time than a year ago? Why? What don't you have enough time for?
- How do you get to work / school? How long does it take you? Is this longer than a year ago?
- Do you usually arrive on time...? Why (not)?

at work/school	for your English class	to meet your friends
----------------	------------------------	----------------------
- What machines do you have which save you time?
 Do they make your life simpler or more complicated?
- Do you waste a lot of time every day? Doing what?

BUT ARE WE LIVING BETTER?

1 No time for the news

Newspaper articles today are shorter and the headlines are bigger. Most people don't have enough time to read the articles, they only read the headlines! On TV and the radio, newscasters speak more quickly than ten years ago.

4 No time to relax

Even when we relax we do everything more quickly. Ten years ago when people went to art galleries they spent ten seconds looking at each picture. Today they spend just three seconds!

2 No time for stories

In the USA there is a book called One-Minute Bedtime Stories for children. These are shorter versions of traditional stories, specially written for 'busy parents' who want to save time!

5 No time for slow sports

In the USA the national sport, baseball, is not as popular as before because it is a slow game and matches take a long time. Nowadays many people prefer faster and more dynamic sports like basketball.

3 No time to listen

Some answerphones now have 'quick playback' buttons so that we can re-play people's messages faster – we can't waste time listening to people speaking at normal speed!

6 ...but more time in our cars

The only thing that is slower than before is the way we drive. Our cars are faster but the traffic is worse so we drive more slowly. We spend more time sitting in our cars, feeling stressed because we are worried that we won't arrive on time. Experts predict that in ten years' time the average speed on the road in cities will be 17 km/h.

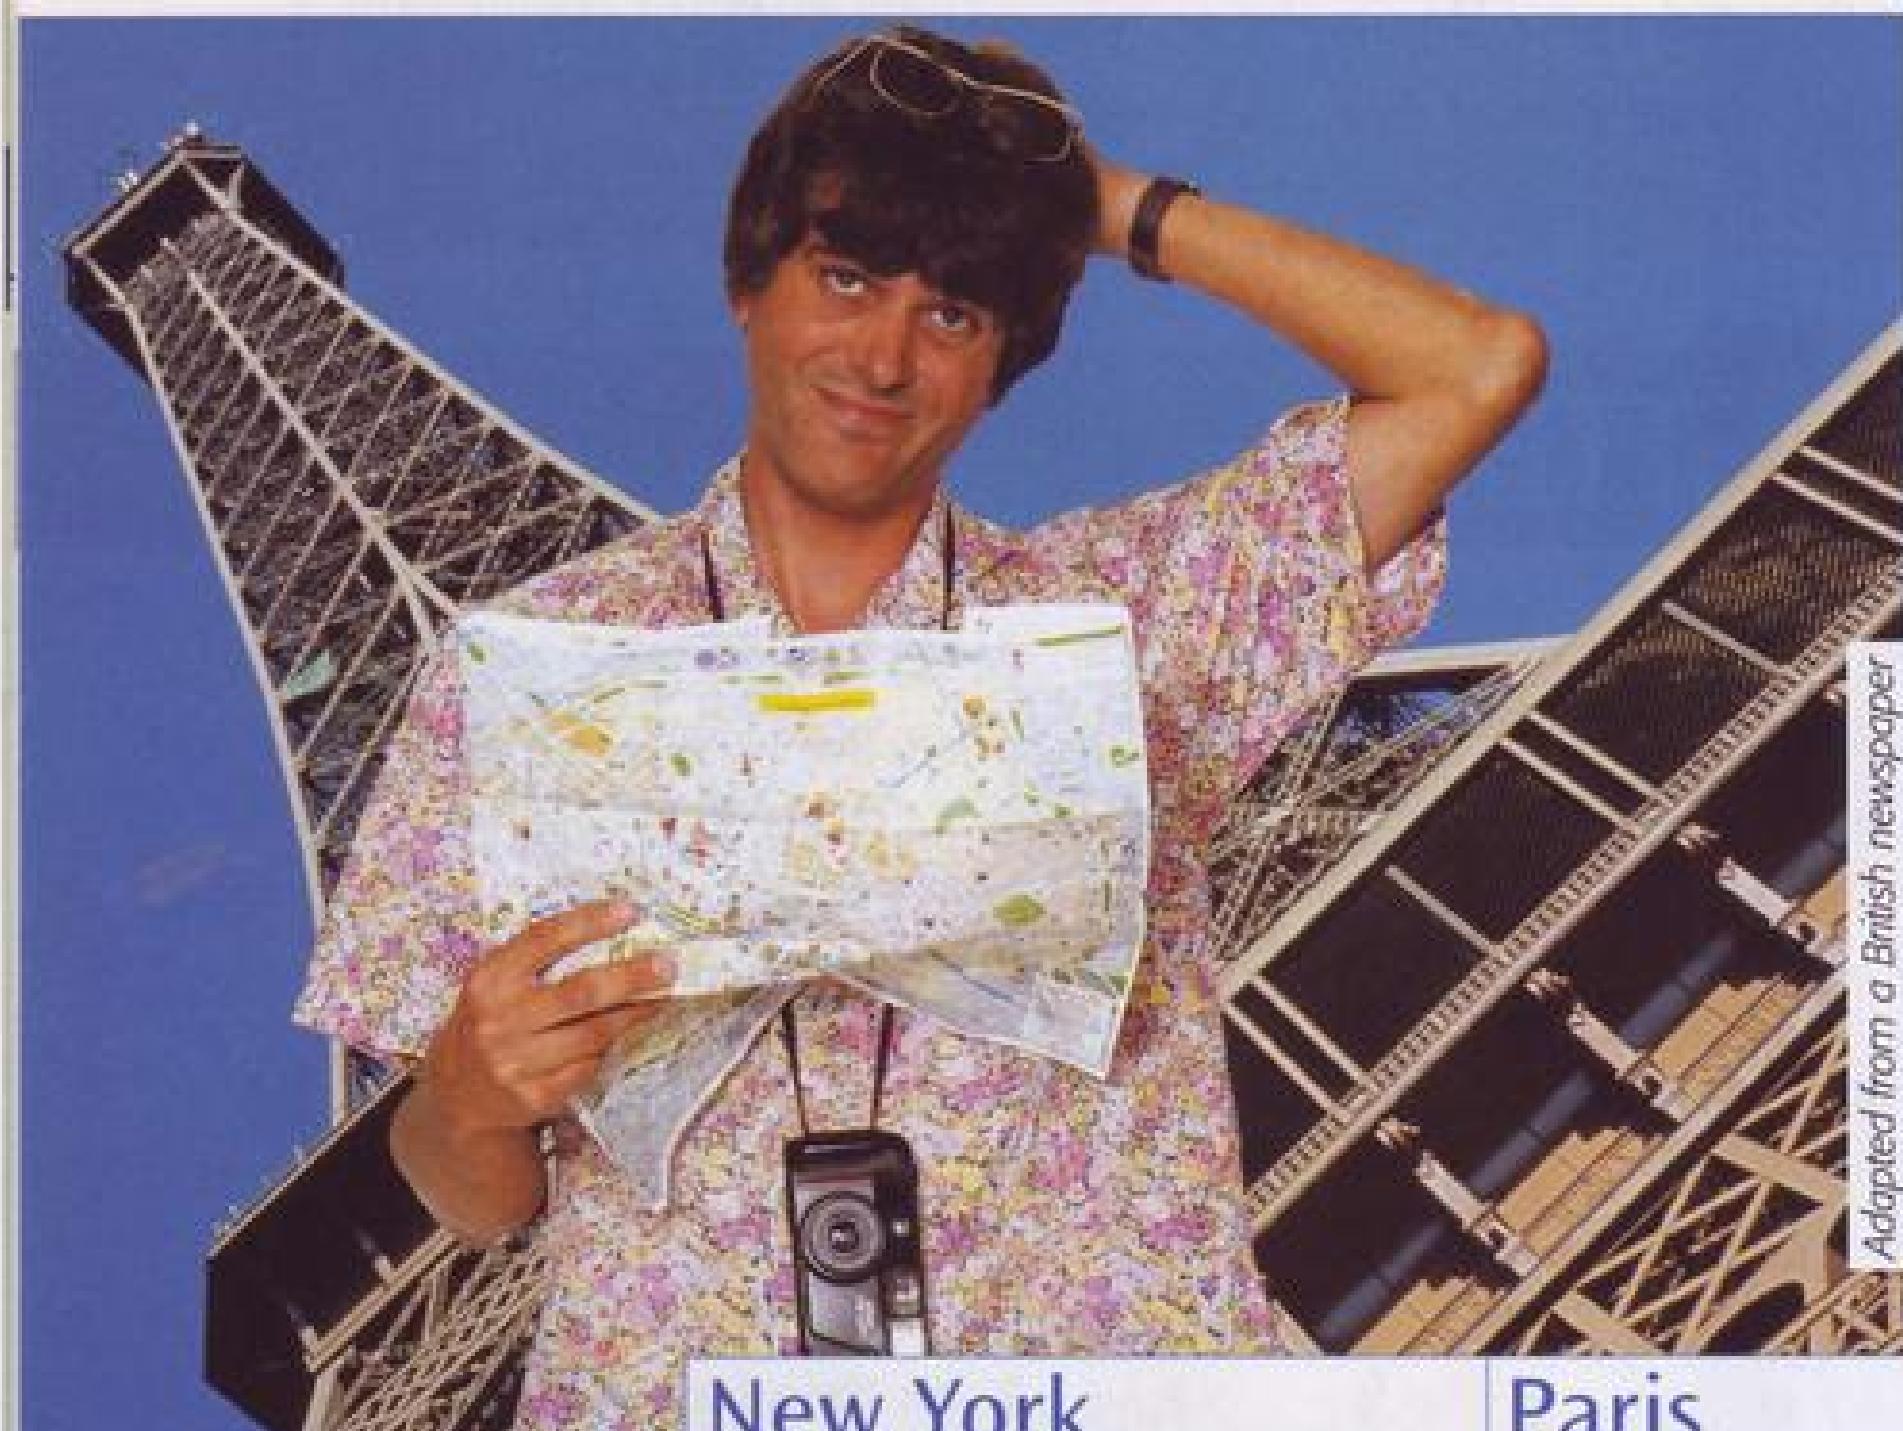

It's the most beautiful city
I've ever been to.

The world's friendliest city

1 READING & LISTENING

- a Read the introduction to the article. In pairs, answer the questions.

- 1 What are the three tests?
- 2 Do you think they are good ones?
- 3 Which city do you think will be the friendliest / most unfriendly?

Big cities

often have a reputation for being rude, unfriendly places for tourists.

Journalist Tim Moore went to four cities, London, Rome, Paris, and New York, to find out if this is true. He went dressed as a foreign tourist and did three tests to see which city had the friendliest and most polite inhabitants. The three tests were:

1 The photo test

Tim asked people in the street to take his photo (not just one photo, but several – with his hat, without his hat, etc.). Did he find someone to do it?

2 The shopping test

Tim bought something in a shop and gave the shop assistant too much money. Did the shop assistant give back the extra money?

3 The accident test

Tim pretended to fall over in the street. Did anybody come and help him?

	New York	Paris	Rome
The photo test	I asked an office worker who was eating his sandwiches to take a photo of me. 'Of course I'll take your picture. Again? Sure! Again? No problem. Have a nice day!'	I asked some gardeners to take some photos of me in front of the Eiffel Tower. They couldn't stop laughing when they saw my hat.	I asked a very chic woman in sunglasses. She took a photo of me with my hat on, then without my hat. Then with my sunglasses. Then she asked me to take a photo of her!
The shopping test	I bought an I love New York T-shirt and drinks from two different people. I gave them too much money but they all gave me the extra money back.	I bought some fruit in a greengrocer's and gave the man a lot of coins. He carefully took the exact amount.	I bought a copy of The Times from a newspaper seller near the railway station. It was three euros. I gave the man four and he didn't give me any change.
The accident test	I fell over in Central Park. I didn't have to wait more than thirty seconds. 'Oh dear,' a man said. 'Is this your camera? I think it's broken.'	I fell over in the Champs Elysées. A minute passed before someone said, 'Are you OK?' And he was Scottish!	When I fell over about eight people immediately hurried to help me.

- 5 In the accident test, where did he wait longest for help? _____
- 6 In which city were people most helpful? _____

- c 4.10 Now listen to Tim Moore talking about what happened in London. Answer the questions.

CAN YOU UNDERSTAND THIS TEXT?

IN 1952, Audrey Hepburn was in Rome, making the film Roman Holiday with Gregory Peck. She was engaged to James Hanson, a London 'playboy', and she asked a famous Italian designer, Zoe Fontana, to make her a dress for the wedding.

Signora Fontana said, 'Audrey was 23. She was so young and so beautiful then. She tried the dress on many times. It was in white lace, with a lot of tiny buttons down the back, and she wanted to wear flowers on her head.'

But two weeks before the wedding, Audrey Hepburn decided not to get married. She phoned Zoe Fontana and said, 'I've cancelled the wedding. But I want another girl to wear my wedding dress, perhaps a poor girl who could never pay for a dress like this one. Find a beautiful girl and give the dress to her.'

Signora Fontana found a poor 20-year-old girl in Latina, a town near Rome. She was exactly the same size as Hepburn and the dress fitted her perfectly. Her name was Amabile Altobello.

Signora Altobello said, 'I wanted to get married, but my fiance and I didn't have enough money for a wedding. When Audrey Hepburn gave me the dress it was like a dream come true. Everybody in the town was very excited, and they also gave us furniture, and even organized a honeymoon for us in Paris.'

Today Signora Altobello is over 70 years old but she still has the dress. 'We are still poor and we have had a hard life, but we have three daughters and five grandchildren. We have had a happy marriage, so the dress brought me luck.'

I want to go to the party.

Are you a party animal?

How to survive at a party... (when you don't know anybody!)

Has this ever happened to you? You arrive at a party or wedding reception where you don't know anybody. Everybody there seems to know each other. What can you do? Here are five simple tips.

- Don't stand in the corner. You need ¹ to be positive. Find somebody you think you would like ² and go and introduce yourself.
- Try ³ to ask impersonal questions like 'I love your bag. Where did you get it?' That will help ⁴ start a conversation.

- Smile, smile, smile. Use your body-language ⁸ to give a positive, friendly impression. That way people will want ⁹ to meet to you.
- If you want ¹⁰ to escape from a really boring person, say that you are going to the bar ¹¹ to get another drink or that you need ¹² to go to the bathroom. Don't come back!

- 5 Where is she going to do the 'tests'?
- 6 What five things does she have to do?
- 7 What are the rules?

How much can you learn in a month?

I work for a magazine, which was doing an article about British language learners. As an experiment, they asked me to learn a completely new language for one month. Then I had to go to the country and do some 'tests' to see if I could 'survive' in different situations. I decided to learn Polish because my great-grandmother was Polish and I have some relatives there. I can already speak French and Spanish quite well but Polish isn't a Latin-based language so I knew it would be completely different.

I did a one-month intensive course at a language school in Birmingham. I thought I was good at languages before I started learning Polish, but now I'm not so sure. I found it incredibly difficult. The grammar was really complicated and the words were not like any other language I know so it was very hard to remember them. For example, I thought 'football' was more or less an international word, but in Polish it's pilka nozna. And the pronunciation is unbelievable! Every word is full of z's where you don't expect them, like jeżdzisz which means 'you go'.

My course finished yesterday and I'm going to Kraków for the weekend to do my tests. A local guide called Kasia is coming with me and is going to give me a mark out of 10.

These are the tests and the rules:

Tests

You have to...

- 1 get a taxi.
- 2 order a drink in a bar.
- 3 ask for directions (and follow them).

Rules

To: The Grange Language School [enquiries@grangeedinburgh]

Subject: Information about courses

Dear Sir / Madam,

I am writing to ask for information about your language courses. I am especially interested in an intensive course of two or three weeks. I am 31 and I work in the library at Milan University. I can read English quite well but I need to improve my listening and speaking. The book I am currently studying is 'pre-intermediate' (Common European Framework level A2).

I have looked at your website, but there is no information about intensive courses next summer. Could you please send me information about dates and prices? I would also like some information about accommodation. If possible I would like to stay with a family. My wife is going to visit me for a weekend when I am at the school. Could she stay with me in the same family?

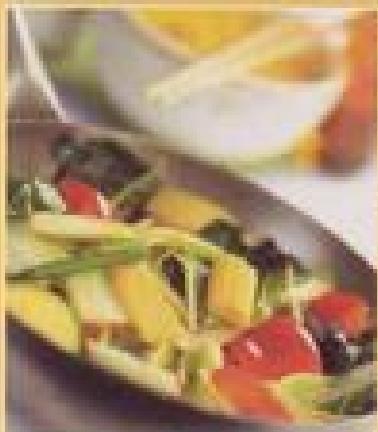

I look forward to hearing from you.

Yours faithfully

Adriano Ruocco

The new face of chess

17-year-old Alexandra Kosteniuk is sometimes called the Anna Kournikova of the chess world. The International Chess Federation have asked her to be the new face of the game, which traditionally has had an image of middle-aged men wearing glasses.

Alexandra started playing chess when she was five. She learnt to play from her father, and became a grandmaster when she was only 14. Experts say that her game is one of the most exciting they have seen for a long time.

'Chess is not as popular as it should be, and I think I could help it,' Kosteniuk said last week. 'It is an honour for me to be described as the face of the game.' She has her own website with pictures, poems, and the opportunity to play chess against her.

Making the game faster is another part of the campaign to make chess more popular. There are now strict time limits for making moves. Games that before lasted for hours can now take place in five minutes. The longest international tournament games, which sometimes took days, now last only four to seven hours.

Nigel Short, the British grandmaster, says, 'There are a lot of attractive women in chess, but Alexandra Kosteniuk has made a very big impression. She is obviously very talented. Any sport needs attractive personalities, and I have no problem with marketing the game through her.'

Murphy's Law

If you change queues in a supermarket, what will happen? The queue you were in before will move more quickly. You know what will happen, because there's a law of life that says, 'if something bad can happen, it will happen'. It's called Murphy's Law, and it took its name from Captain Edward Murphy, an American aeroplane engineer from the 1940s. He was investigating why planes crashed, and not surprisingly, he got a reputation for always thinking of the worst thing that can happen in every situation...

NATURE'S PERFECT KILLING MACHINE

T

HE AUSTRALIAN CROCODILE

is the largest crocodile in the world. It can grow up to seven metres long and the biggest can weigh up to 1000 kilos. It has only two muscles to open its mouth but 40 to close it!

What makes crocodiles so dangerous is that they attack incredibly quickly and they take their victims under the water to drown them. They usually attack in the water, but they can suddenly come out of a river and attack animals or people, and they can run on land at 17 km/h.

Every year in Australia there are crocodile attacks on humans. Two years ago a 24-year-old German tourist died when she went for a swim in a lake.

Although there were signs warning people that there might be crocodiles, the girl and her friends decided to have a midnight swim. The girl suddenly disappeared and next morning her body was found. Near it was a four-metre crocodile.

And only last month two Australian boys watched in horror as their friend was killed by a crocodile when they were washing their mountain bikes in a river. They climbed a tree and stayed there for 22 hours while the crocodile waited below.

But you CAN survive a crocodile attack. Last year Norman Pascoe, a 19-year-old, was saved from a crocodile when his aunt hit it on the nose. Norman's aunt said: 'I hit it and I shouted, "Help!" The crocodile suddenly opened its mouth and my nephew escaped.'

How to make decisions

When you have to choose between two possibilities:

- ¹ Take your time. The most important thing is not to make a decision in a hurry.
- ² Make a list of the positive and negative points for both options. Then decide which points are most important and ³ Prioritize the two lists.
- If you ⁴ Ask other people for their advice, don't ask more than one or two. If you ask a lot of people, this will probably ⁵ Stress you.
- Use ⁶ Your imagination to help you. Imagine yourself in both situations. How do you ⁷ Feel? Relaxed or stressed?
- When you've made a decision, ⁸ Wait a bit before you tell other people, to see how you feel. If you feel comfortable with your decision after an hour, you have probably made the right decision.
- Finally, remember that you can't ⁹ Have everything. Choosing one of two possibilities always means that you can't have the one you didn't choose. And it's impossible to ¹⁰ Always make the right decision!

A question of principles

The first of a new series in which celebrities answer questions on moral dilemmas. This week, radio presenter Stephen Bruce.

A If your girlfriend was allergic to the dog you've had for ten years, would you give your dog away?

B If your boss gave you tickets to the theatre and you forgot to go, would you tell him the truth when he asked?

C If your young daughter's hamster died, would you buy an identical one or tell her the truth?

D If a colleague at work told everyone that he was 45 but you knew he was five years older, would you keep his secret?

E If a celebrity was having a secret affair with your neighbour, would you sell the story to a newspaper?

2 No, I'd say that it was the best show I've ever seen! I wouldn't want to offend him. But he would probably guess I was lying.

3 I'm afraid the dog would win! I'd tell my girlfriend that my dog and I had been together for a long time but that she might not be here next week.

4 It would be an interesting story – my neighbour is a 92-year-old, bald Swedish man! No, I wouldn't. I'd just tell my partner.

A famous rebel – but was he really?

He didn't use to do the homework – 'there was far too much' – and he was continually at war with the teachers. He used to break the rules all the time, especially rules he thought were stupid, about how to wear the school uniform and things like that. Once he even organized a mass protest against 'appalling' school dinners. 'It was probably the greatest contribution to school I ever made,' he said. Although he made a good start at school, Jagger said his school work deteriorated because of 'music and girls'.

However, according to one of his old school friends, musician Dick Taylor, this is not true. He says that Mick didn't use to be a rebel at all – he was quite bright and used to work hard. He also used to do a lot of sport.

When Mick Jagger left school, he had seven O-levels and two A-levels, which at that time were good qualifications – so perhaps Dick's memory is better than Mick's...

CAN YOU UNDERSTAND THIS TEXT?

- a Read the article quickly. What is surprising about Lady Morton?

The world's most experienced driver?

One of Scotland's most active¹ centenarians, Lady Morton, has been a driver for nearly 80 years, although she has never taken a driving test. But last week she had her first ever accident – she hit a traffic island when she took her new car for a drive in Edinburgh.

Lady Morton, who celebrated her 100th birthday in July,² was given the Nissan Micra as a surprise present. Yesterday she talked about the accident. 'I wasn't going fast, but I hit a traffic island. I couldn't see it, because it had no lights, which I think is³ ridiculous. But I am all right and luckily my car wasn't badly⁴ damaged.'

⁵ In spite of the accident, she is not planning to stop driving. 'Some people are just born to drive, and I think I am one of them. I've never taken a test, but I've been a good driver since the first time I got in a car. I'm musical, so I listen to the sound of the car to know when to change gear. Some people are very rude – they ask me if I'm still driving at my age.⁶ It really annoys me.'

Lady Morton bought her first car in 1927. The⁷ main change she has noticed since then is the traffic. 'It's⁸ appalling. I don't mind it, because I am experienced, but I feel very sorry for beginners.'

I didn't do anything at the weekend.

I hate weekends!

Most people say that Saturdays or Sundays are their favourite days of the week – but not everybody. For some people weekends are not much fun...

Marco from Brazil is a _____

'I hate the weekend. The weekend is when I'm busiest. I never go ¹ anywhere and I don't really do ² anything except work. On Friday and Saturday nights we're usually full, and I have to be on my feet for seven or eight hours both days. We're supposed to close at 1.00, but people often don't leave until 1.30 or even later – they never think that we might want to go home. Luckily we close after lunch on Sunday, but when I get home, usually at about 5.30, I'm so tired that I don't want to see ³ anyone or do ⁴ anything except lie on the sofa and watch TV. The best day of the week for me is Wednesday – that's my day off.'

Kirsten from Germany is a _____

'I must admit that for me now the weekends are more tiring than the week. During the week I have ⁵ some _____ to help me, but at the weekends we're on our own. My husband's always exhausted from his job and wants to relax, but ⁶ no _____ can relax with two small kids around. Our flat isn't very big so there's ⁷ no _____ you can go to have some peace and quiet. Before we had children I used to work too and weekends were perfect. We had ⁸ no _____ to do except enjoy ourselves. Now I'm really happy when it's Monday morning.'

Steve from the UK is a _____

'My weekend is usually quite stressful. More stressful than during the week. We're playing at home I can't go out on Friday night. All my friends know that, so ⁹ no _____ invites me out on a Friday. I have ¹⁰ some _____ light to eat, and watch TV, and go to bed early. Very boring! On Saturday morning I usually relax and prepare myself mentally, as our home matches are usually at 3.00 in the afternoon. What I do on Saturday night depends on whether we win or lose. If we win, I have to go out with the team to celebrate. If we lose, we're too depressed to go ¹¹ anywhere. When we play away, the weekend doesn't exist. We travel ¹² some _____, play, and then travel back again. I look forward to having a weekend just for me.'

How old is your body?

How old are you? How old is your body? The answer to these two questions isn't always the same. Our body age can be much younger or much older than our calendar age (even eighteen years different!). We can now calculate our body age by answering questions about the way we live. If our body age is older than our calendar age, we should change our lifestyle.

EXERCISE

I know I'm too fat because I don't do enough exercise. I spend too much time sitting in studios. All I do is play squash, but I don't play very often – about once a month. I would go to a gym if I had more time.

DIET

I eat quite a lot of fresh food and a lot of fruit, but I probably eat too much meat. My girlfriend says I don't drink enough water. I drink a little alcohol – just a glass of red wine with my dinner. But I don't drink any beer. I drink a lot of coffee. It goes with the job.

LIFESTYLE

Like everybody I'm too busy! There aren't enough hours in the day. I love my job but I work too much (sometimes I spend 14 hours a day in the studio – that's too many). I often feel a bit tense and irritable. I smoke a few cigarettes when I go out, but I'm not a regular smoker. I only wear sunscreen when I go to the beach. My skin is quite dark so I don't think it's a problem.

PERSONALITY

I'm quite pessimistic. I always think that things will go wrong – and they usually do, especially at work.

SOCIAL LIFE

I don't have much free time but I have a few close friends and I try to see them regularly. If I'm too busy then I phone them.

DOCTOR'S VERDICT:

Tariq should do more exercise, for example he could walk to work. This would help him to control his stress. His diet is quite healthy but he should drink more water and less coffee. He must give up smoking. Although his skin is quite dark he should wear sunscreen all year round, even in winter. And he should try to be more positive.

 - b should start work early and finish early.
 - c should start work late and finish late.

Are you allergic to mornings?

Are you somebody who can't wake up in the morning? Do you need two cups of coffee before you can start a new day? Do you feel awful when you first wake up?

Scientists say it's all because of our genes. How did they find this out? Researchers from the University of Surrey interviewed 500 people. They asked them questions about their lifestyle, for example what time of day they preferred to do exercise and how difficult they found it to wake up in the morning. Scientists then compared their answers to the people's DNA.

They discovered that we all have a 'clock' gene, also called a Period 3 gene. This gene can be long or short. People who have the long gene are usually people who are very good in the morning, but who get tired quite early at night. People who have the short gene are usually people who are more active at night but who have problems waking up early in the morning. How does it help us to know if we have the long or short gene? Scientists say that, if possible, we should try to change our working hours to fit our 'body clock'. If you are a 'morning person' then you could start work early and finish early. But if you are bad in the mornings, then it might be better to start work in the afternoon and work until late at night. So maybe, instead of nine to five it should be seven to three or twelve to eight.

- 5 I like _____ and so does my _____.
- 6 I don't like _____ and neither does my _____.

JIM SPRINGER AND JIM LEWIS were reunited after forty years by Dr Thomas Bouchard, Professor of psychology at the University of Minnesota. He was investigating how much of our personality depends on genes. Dr Bouchard was amazed by how many things the twins had in common. He had expected them to look identical and to have similar medical histories. But he and his team were very surprised to find the enormous similarities in the two Jims' personalities, their lifestyle, their hobbies, their religion, even their political beliefs.

Some of the similarities are incredible: Jim Springer's son is called James Allen, and Jim Lewis's is called James Alan. They both have dogs named Toy. They like and hate the same sports and they voted for the same President. And both Jims have the same romantic habit of leaving little love letters for their wives around the house.

Dr Bouchard is convinced that genes are probably much more important in determining our personality and preferences than people used to think.

Born to run

The Ethiopian runner, Haile Gebreselassie, the 'Emperor', is probably the greatest athlete of all time. He has won two Olympic titles, seven world titles and has broken numerous world records at 5,000 and 10,000 metres. A Sunday Times journalist went to interview him at his home in Addis Ababa.

Haile's routine has not changed since he became an athlete. Every morning he gets up at 5.45 and runs for two hours. He has a nap after lunch and then goes out running again.

Haile was brought up in a very poor family. Although today he is a multi-millionaire he has never been comfortable with being a rich man in such a poor country. 'The thing that really offends me,' he says, 'is that the most important value in the 21st century is how much money you have.'

In the future, when he retires from athletics, Haile may go into politics. 'I want to do something to help the people of Ethiopia. I have travelled to many countries. I have experience and I want to share that experience.' What Haile can't understand is why Europe is so rich and Ethiopia so poor. 'I was in Germany a week ago and it was freezing! Minus five. We have a much better climate. But we don't have enough water and so we don't have enough food and there are too many people.'

As we drive through the city in his ten-year-old Mercedes everybody recognizes him and shouts his name. A lorry carrying soldiers waits to let us pass. 'Even the army are your fans,' I say. 'No,' replies Haile. 'That was because there is a white man sitting in the front seat of the car with me.'

Leaving for Newfoundland
Willy Ronis 1949

HE TOOK THIS PHOTO in 1949 in France. He was working for a magazine. They wanted photos of fishermen. The people in the photo were a fisherman called Marcel, his wife, and their little baby boy. Marcel was leaving to go to Canada and the photographer wanted to take a photo of him and his wife in front of the boat. He said, 'Kiss your wife goodbye. I need a photo with a kiss.' But Marcel was very shy and he gave his wife a very cold kiss. So the photographer said, 'Is that how you kiss your wife?' So he kissed her again, very naturally. This time he forgot about the photographer. The photo became quite famous. Many years later Marcel saw his photo in my book and he wrote to the photographer. He said that his son (the baby in the photo) was now 30 years old and was a fisherman too.

Richard

I was very optimistic when I went to meet Claire. My first impression was that she was very friendly and very extrovert. Physically she was my type – she was quite slim and not very tall with long dark hair – very pretty. And she was very funny too. She had a great sense of humour. We laughed a lot. But the only problem was that Claire was very talkative. She talked all the time and I just listened. She wasn't very interested in me. At the end of the evening I knew everything about her and she knew nothing about me. Claire was the kind of woman I could have as a friend but not as a girlfriend.

1.4

When I first saw Nina I couldn't believe it. I thought 'Wow! Thanks mum.' She's very attractive – she's got short dark hair – and she's quite tall. She's Hungarian, from Budapest but her English was fantastic. At first she was a bit shy but when we started chatting we found we had a lot of things in common – we both like music, food, and travelling. We got on really well – we didn't stop talking for the whole evening. When it was time to go I knew I really wanted to see Nina again and I asked her for her phone number. But – she just smiled at me and said in her beautiful Hungarian accent. 'Richard, you're really sweet but I'm sorry you're not my type.'

OK, now the painting we are looking at now is by the French painter Toulouse-Lautrec.

The painting is called At the Moulin Rouge. As you probably know The Moulin Rouge is a nightclub in Paris. Maybe some of you remember the film Moulin Rouge? In the 19th century, the nightclub was very famous for its beautiful dancers and singers.

Toulouse-Lautrec did a lot of paintings and posters of the Moulin Rouge. He especially loved painting the dancers. And in these paintings he sometimes included his friends too.

In the middle of the picture there are five people who are sitting at a table having a drink. The woman who's wearing a hat is a dancer – her name is La Macarona –, and the man sitting next to her on the right is a friend of Toulouse-Lautrec. He was a photographer. On the right, here, there's a woman with fair hair, blue eyes, and very red lips. Her face looks very white. That's another famous dancer called Jane Avril. At the back of the picture, on the right, there are two women who are standing together. One of them is touching her hair. That's La Goulue and she was one of the most famous singers at the Moulin Rouge at that time.

Now this is very interesting. If you look carefully to the left of the two women, there are two men walking out of the nightclub. One of them is very tall and the other one is very short. The very tall man is Toulouse-Lautrec's cousin Gabriel, and the other man is Toulouse-Lautrec himself. Toulouse-Lautrec was only 1 metre 50 centimetres tall. He had very short legs and couldn't walk very well. Some people think that this is why he loved painting the dancers of the Moulin Rouge... because they all had beautiful, long legs.

Presenter Good evening, ladies and gentlemen and welcome to What's the word? And our first contestant tonight is Adam. Hello Adam. Are you nervous?

Adam Just a bit.

Presenter Well try and relax Adam and play What's the word? with us. In case you're watching the show for the first time here's how we play the game. I have six cards with things, people, or places written on them. I'm going to give Adam definitions and he's going to try and guess the words on my six cards. But of course, I can't use any of the words on the cards in my definitions. So, for example, if I have a card with taxis driver, I can't use taxis or driver in my definition. Are you ready Adam?

Adam Yes.

Presenter OK, you have two minutes to guess what's on the six cards starting now!

Mark

Hi. My name's Mark Ryder. I'm American and I live in San Francisco. I work for a music company called MTC. I'm divorced and I have a daughter.

Last month I went to England on a work trip, and I met Allie. She's British, and she works for MTC in the UK. We had a great five days. We went out for coffee. We went shopping. It was my birthday, and she bought me a present. We went out for dinner. I really liked her, and I think she liked me too.

I invited her to a conference in San Francisco, and she said yes. And now I'm at the airport. I'm waiting for her to arrive.

1.17

Mark Allie, hi!
Allie Hi Mark.
Mark You look great!
Allie You too. How are you?
Mark I'm fine. How was the flight?
Allie Long! Eleven hours.
Mark You must be really tired.
Allie Yes. I couldn't sleep at all. The people next to me had a baby with them. What's the time here? I need to change my watch.
Mark It's seven in the evening.
Allie It's three in the morning for me.
Mark OK, I'm going to take you right to the hotel and you can rest.
Allie Fine. Sorry!
Mark You are going to love San Francisco! I'm so pleased you came!
Allie Me too. It's great to see you again.
Mark Come on. My car's in the parking lot. Let's go.

Presenter Hello and welcome to today's Holiday Programme. Today we've asked you to call in with your holiday horror stories – holidays where things went wrong. Our first caller today is Sean from Belfast. Hi Sean.
Sean Hello.
Presenter So where was this holiday?
Sean Well, this didn't happen to me, it happened to my aunt and uncle, last summer.
Presenter Where did they go?
Sean To Ibiza.
Presenter A fantastic place for a holiday.
Sean Yes, fantastic place if you're seventeen – but they're nearly seventy!
Presenter Oh...
Sean And they wanted a quiet holiday, a relaxing holiday – you know. They like walking in the countryside, sitting on quiet beaches – things like that. They don't go abroad very often, but they wanted to do something different.
Presenter So why did they choose Ibiza? It's the party island.

Sean Yes, it is now but they didn't know that. You see, they first went to Ibiza in the late sixties, when it was a beautiful, peaceful island with traditional cafés and restaurants, deserted beaches. And this was exactly what they wanted. So they looked on the Internet – my uncle loves his computer – and they booked a hotel for a week in the same part of the island where they'd been before. And they found some cheap flights. It all seemed so perfect.

Presenter So what happened?
Sean You can imagine. It was a complete disaster. Their hotel was in San Antonio, a resort that's full of bars and discos. There was music until 5.00 in the morning, noise of car doors opening, motorbikes, and people shouting. They couldn't sleep at all. They were too tired to do anything during the day. They tried to get some sleep, but they couldn't because it was too hot. When they came home they were in a state of shock.

Presenter Oh dear – What are their plans for this year?
Sean I don't know. I think they'll probably stay at home this year...and next year... and probably the year after that...

Presenter Thank you Sean. And now...

Marinette We didn't know that our picture was so famous until thirty years later. One day I was working in the café when the man from the bookshop next door came in. He was holding a new book which had a photo on the cover. Suddenly I said, 'I don't believe it! That's Henri and I when we were very young!'

I remember that afternoon at the Bastille very well. When the man took that photo we were arguing! Henri was standing very near me. I was saying, 'Henri, don't stand so near me, there is somebody behind us.'

Henri We didn't know that the photographer was taking a photo of us. We were arguing. I can't remember exactly what we were arguing about. I think I was trying to kiss Marinette and she didn't want to. Or I think maybe we were arguing about our wedding – we got married a few months after the man took the photo.

Marinette People who know this photo always think of us as the eternal lovers, like Romeo and Juliet. But life isn't like that. It's very difficult to stay in love when you see your husband every day at home and you see him every day at work too. And I'm very hard-working but Henri is still a dreamer. Ah, those were the days...

2.15

Two hours later a police car arrived at Hannah's house. A policewoman knocked at the door. 'Good evening, Madam,' she said. 'Are you Hannah Davis? I'd like to speak to you. Can I come in?'

The policewoman came in and sat down on the sofa.

'Are you a friend of Jamie Dixon?' she said.
'Yes,' said Hannah.

'I understand you were going to meet him this evening.'

'Yes, at 5.30, at a coffee bar. But he didn't come so I didn't see him.'

'Well I'm afraid I have some bad news for you,' said the policewoman.

'What? What's happened?'

'Jamie had an accident this evening.'

'Oh no. What kind of accident?'

'He was crossing the road and a car hit him.'

'Is he... Is he...OK?'

'Well, he's going to be in hospital for a long time.'
'Oh no.'

'But don't worry, He's going to be OK.'

'When did this happen?'

'This evening at twenty-five past five. He was crossing the road in the High Street.'

'And the driver of the car?'

'She didn't stop,' said the policewoman.

'She?'

'Yes, it was a woman in a white car. Every police officer in the town is looking for her.'

'Can I go to the hospital to see Jamie?'

'Yes, I can take you there now.'

'I'll get my coat. OK I'm ready.'

'Is that your car, madam? The white one over there?'

'Yes it is.'

'Can I have a look at it?'

'Did you know your front light is broken?'

'No, I didn't.'

'What exactly were you doing at 5.25 this evening, madam?'

2.16

Receptionist Good evening, ma'am. How can I help you?

Allie That's right.

Receptionist OK, Ms Gray. Here's your key. You're in room 419 on the fourth floor.

Allie Thanks.

Receptionist Do you need any help with your bags?

Allie Yes, please.

2.19

Mark Here you go, Allie. A cappuccino – see, I remembered!

Allie Well done! Thanks.

Mark Did you sleep well?

Allie Yes, very well. How are things?

Mark They're fine.

Allie What are the plans for the week?

Mark Well, today we don't have any free time. But tomorrow I'm going to take you to this great little restaurant I know.

Allie That sounds good.

Mark And then on Wednesday night there's a cocktail party here at the hotel, and then a conference dinner on Thursday. Is there anything special you want to do?

Allie Well, I'd like to see the bay and the Golden Gate Bridge. And I'd like to go shopping if there's time.

Brad Hi Mark, how are you doing?

Mark Hi Brad. I'm fine, just fine.

Brad Aren't you going to introduce me?

Listening

Mark Oh sure, Allie, this is Brad Martin. Brad works in the Los Angeles office. Brad, this is Allie Gray from the London office.

Allie Hello.

Brad Hi Allie, great to meet you. Mark told me you were very nice but he didn't tell me you were so beautiful. So, is this your first time in San Francisco?

Allie Yes, it is.

Brad Has Mark shown you the sights?

Allie Well, not yet.

Brad Then maybe I can show you round. I love this city.

Mark Allie, it's time to go. Excuse us, Brad.

Brad Well, great to meet you, Allie. See you round.

Allie Yes. Nice to meet you too. Goodbye.

Brad Bye.

Interviewer So Rima, did you find a job as an au pair?

Rima Well, I found a job, but not looking after children. I'm working in a restaurant – an Italian restaurant. I'm a waitress. I work very long hours!

Interviewer Was it difficult to find a job?

Rima No. There are lots of jobs in restaurants, hotels, cleaning, things like that.

Interviewer Are you still living in your friend's flat?

Rima Yes, because it's very expensive here and I can't afford to rent my own flat. London is incredibly expensive!

Interviewer Your English is much better!

Rima Well, a bit better, but I don't go to classes, because I don't have time. As I said, I work very long hours in the restaurant. But I watch a lot of English TV, and I speak English at work.

Interviewer When are you going back to Lithuania?

Rima I don't know. My plans have changed a bit.

Interviewer Why?

Rima Well, I met someone in the restaurant. He's the chef. We're getting married next month.

Interviewer Congratulations! Is he from Lithuania too?

Rima No, he's Italian. From Naples. He's a fantastic cook.

Interviewer So, are you going to stay in London?

Rima Yes. I'm very happy here now. We both really like London – our dream is to open a restaurant together one day.

Interviewer Are your family coming to the wedding?

Rima No! They don't even know I'm getting married! You see, they want me to go back to Lithuania.

Interviewer Well, good luck with everything, Rima.

Presenter Today's topic is 'positive thinking'.

We all know that people who are positive enjoy life more than people who are negative and pessimistic. But scientific studies show that positive people are also healthier, get better more quickly when they're ill, and live longer. A recent study shows that people who are optimistic and think positively live, on average, nine years longer than pessimistic people who think negatively. So, let's hear what you the listeners think. Do you have any tips to help us be more positive in our lives?

Presenter And our first caller this evening is Andy. Hi Andy. What's your tip for being positive?

Andy Hello. Well, I think it's very important to live in the present and not in the past. Don't think about mistakes you made in the past. You can't change the past. The important thing is to think about how you will do things better in the future.

Presenter Thank you Andy. And now we have another caller. What's your name, please?

Julie Hi, my name's Julie. My tip is think positive thoughts, not negative ones. We all have negative thoughts sometimes but when we start having them we need to stop and try to change them into positive ones. Like, if you have an exam tomorrow and you start thinking 'I'm sure I'll fail', then you'll fail the exam. So you need to change that negative thought to a positive thought. Just think to yourself 'I'll pass.' I do this and it usually works.

Presenter Thank you Julie. And our next caller is Giovanna. Hi Giovanna.

Giovanna Hi. My tip is don't spend a lot of time reading the papers or watching the news on TV. It's always bad news and it just makes you feel depressed. Read a book or listen to your favourite music instead.

Presenter Thanks Giovanna. And our next caller is Miriam. Miriam?

Miriam Hi.

Presenter Hi Miriam. What's your tip?

Miriam My tip is every week make a list of all the good things that happened to you. Then keep the list with you, in your bag or in a pocket, and if you're feeling a bit sad or depressed just take it out and read it. It'll make you feel better.

Presenter Thanks Miriam. And our last call is from Michael. Hi Michael. We're listening.

Michael Hi. My tip is to try to use positive language when you speak to other people. You know, if your friend has a problem don't say 'I'm sorry' or 'Oh poor you', say something positive like 'Don't worry!' Everything will be OK. That way you'll make the other person think more positively about their problem.

Presenter Thank you, Michael. Well that's all we've got time for. A big thank you to all our callers. Until next week then, goodbye.

3.13

Patient So what does it mean, doctor?

Dr Muller Well, first the party. A party is a group of people. This means that you're going to meet a lot of people. I think you're going to be very busy.

Patient At work?

Dr Muller Yes, at work...you work in an office, I think?

Patient Yes, that's right.

Dr Muller I think the party means you are going to have a lot of meetings.

Patient What about the champagne?

Dr Muller Let me look at my notes again. Ah yes, you were drinking champagne. Champagne means a celebration. It's a symbol of success. So we have a meeting or meetings and then a celebration. Maybe in the future you'll have a meeting with your boss, about a possible promotion?

Patient Well, it's possible. I hope so...What about the garden and the flowers? Do they mean anything?

Dr Muller Yes. Flowers are a positive symbol. So, the flowers mean that you are feeling positive about the future. So perhaps you already knew about this possible promotion?

Patient No, I didn't. But it's true, I am very happy at work and I feel very positive about my future. That's not where my problems are. My problems are with my love life. Does my dream tell you anything about that?

Dr Muller Mm, yes it does. You're single, aren't you?

Patient Yes, well, divorced.

Dr Muller Because the violin music tells me you want some romance in your life – you're looking for a partner perhaps?

Patient Yes, yes, I am. In fact I met a very nice woman last month – I really like her, ... I think I'm in love with her. I'm meeting her tonight...

Dr Muller In your dream you saw an owl...in a tree?

Patient Yes, an owl...a big owl.

Dr Muller The owl represents an older person. I think you'll need to ask this older person for help. Maybe this 'older person' is me? Maybe you need my help?

Patient Well, yes, what I really want to know is... Does this person...this woman...love me?

Dr Muller You remember the end of your dream? You were feeling cold?

Patient Yes, my feet were very cold.

Dr Muller Well... I think perhaps you already know the answer to your question.

Patient You mean she doesn't love me.

Dr Muller No, I don't think so. I think you will need to find another woman. I'm sorry.

3.15

Waiter Are you ready to order?
 Mark Yes, to start a tomato and mozzarella salad – is that right, Allie?
 Allie Yes.
 Mark And the mushroom soup for me.
 Waiter And for your main course?
 Allie I'll have the fried chicken.
 Waiter With French fries or a baked potato?
 Allie A baked potato, please.
 Waiter And for you, sir?
 Mark And I'd like the steak, with French fries.
 Waiter How would you like your steak? Rare, medium, well done?
 Mark Rare, please.
 Waiter And to drink?
 Mark Could you bring us the wine list, please?

3.18

Waiter Your check, sir.
 Mark Thanks.
 Waiter Thank you.
 Allie Thank you, Mark. That was a lovely dinner.
 Mark I'm glad you enjoyed it.
 Allie How's your daughter?
 Mark Jennifer? She's fine. She's with her mother in Los Angeles.
 Allie Mark?
 Mark Yeah.
 Allie Can I ask you something? Something personal?
 Mark Sure. What?
 Allie How long were you married?
 Mark Three years.
 Allie Why did you break up?
 Mark There were a lot of reasons. We were very young when we had Jennifer. We were both working very hard. We didn't spend much time together... the usual story. What about you, Allie?
 Allie Well, there was someone. I met him when I was at university. We were together for two years. We broke up.
 Mark Why?
 Allie I don't know. Usual story!
 Mark Thank you. Listen, it's early – it's only nine o'clock. Shall we go for a walk?
 Allie Good idea. Where shall we go?
 Mark There's a place called Fisherman's Wharf, it's right on the bay. There are a lot of cafés and bars. We could have another cup of coffee.
 Allie Fine. Let's go.

1 Interviewer Excuse me sir, I'm doing a ... sir? Excuse me madam, do you have a few minutes to answer...
 Woman Sorry, I really don't have time.
 Interviewer Excuse me. Could I ask you a few questions about Zara?
 Woman 1 Yes, OK.
 Interviewer Have you ever been to a Zara store?

Woman 1 Yes, many times.

Interviewer And when did you last go there?

Woman 1 About three weeks ago.

Interviewer Where was that?

Woman 1 Here in London. In Oxford Street.

Interviewer OK, thank you. What did you buy?

Woman 1 Er, a white jacket.

Interviewer And are you happy with it?

Woman 1 Quite happy. I like the jacket but the colour was a mistake. It's already dirty.

Interviewer Thank you very much for your time.

Interviewer Hello. Do you mind if I ask you a few questions about Zara?

Woman 2 How long will it take?

Interviewer Only a few minutes.

Woman 2 Yes, all right then.

Interviewer Have you ever been to a Zara store?

Woman 2 Yes.

Interviewer When did you last go there?

Woman 2 Last Saturday.

Man In August.

Interviewer Where?

Man At Barcelona airport.

Interviewer What did you buy?

Man I nearly bought lots of things, but in the end I didn't buy anything. But my girlfriend bought some shoes.

4.9

- Definitely more. My daughter got married last year and she and her husband live quite far away. She rings me almost every day to tell me how everything is going, and we usually chat for hours. My phone bill is now double what it was when she was living at home.
- I spend a lot less time than before. My youngest child has just started school, and I've gone back to work, so I never make lunch now during the week – I just have a sandwich. And in the evenings we often get take-away pizzas or Chinese food, or we heat something up in the microwave. I only really spend time in the kitchen at weekends.
- Well I'd say less – though I'm not sure if my parents would agree. I get so much homework now that I never go to bed before 11 or 12, but I still get up at seven in the morning. It's true I get up later at weekends, but that's only two days out of seven.

4 More, much more. Before it only used to take me fifteen minutes to get to work, and now it takes me twenty-five, or even half an hour. It's mainly because there are just more cars on the road. Sometimes I think I should use public transport, but it's quite complicated from where I live.

4.10

Tim

First I did the photo test. I was near Charing Cross station. I stopped a man who was walking quite slowly down the road and I said, 'Excuse me, could you take my photo?' The man said, 'No, no, no time for that,' and just continued walking. Then I asked a businessman in a grey suit who was walking towards the station. He took one photo, but when I asked him to take another one he walked away quickly.

Next, it was the shopping test. I went to a tourist shop in Oxford Street and I bought a key ring and a red bus. The red bus was very expensive. The total price was forty pounds. I gave the man a hundred pounds – two fifty pound notes. He gave me sixty pounds back.

Finally it was time for the accident test. For this test I went down into the Tube (the London Underground). As I went down the stairs I fell over and sat on the floor. A man immediately stopped and looked down at me. I thought he was going to help me but he didn't – he just said, 'Why don't you look where you are going?'

Receptionist Good morning, ma'am. How can I help you?

Allie I want to go shopping. Where's the best place to go?

Receptionist Well, all the big department stores are around Union Square.

Allie Can you tell me how to get there?

Receptionist Yes, of course. Go out of the hotel and turn left. Go straight ahead, down Sutter Street. Turn left at Stockton – it's the third street on the left. Union Square will be right in front of you. You can't miss it.

Allie Thanks.

4.15

Allie Oh, where is it? Excuse me. Can you tell me the way to Union Square?

Brad Hey – don't I know you?

Allie I don't think so.

Brad Allie, I'm Brad! Brad Martin from the Los Angeles office. I'm Mark's friend, remember? We met yesterday at the hotel.

Allie Oh yes, that's right. Brad. I'm so sorry.

Brad No problem. What are you doing here?

Allie I want to go shopping. I'm looking for Union Square. But I'm lost.

Brad Where's Mark?

Allie He's at the hotel – he had a meeting, I think.

Brad Listen, Allie. I'm going to take you for a cup of coffee at Del Monico's – they have the best coffee in San Francisco, and amazing cookies. And then I'll walk with you to Union Square.

Listening

Allie That's really kind of you. Are you sure?

Brad Absolutely. It's my pleasure.

Allie OK. Great. I'm awful with new cities. I always get lost.

Brad Oh, I love your British accent...

5.1

1 Harry Hello, you're one of Peter's friends aren't you?

Adrian That's right. I'm Adrian.

Harry Hi, I'm Harry. Are you enjoying the party?

Adrian Yes.

Harry So, what do you do for a living, Adrian?

Adrian I'm a doctor.

Harry A doctor? Oh that's good. Listen, I have a problem with my back. Could you have a look at it? I've got a pain just here...

Adrian Sorry, can you excuse me? I've just seen Peter over there and I want to wish him a Happy Birthday.

Man James, this is Sandra.

James Hi.

Sandra Nice to meet you.

Man Sandra's a teacher in secondary school.

James A teacher? Really? What a wonderful job! You're so lucky.

Sandra Why lucky?

James Well, you have really long summer holidays!

Sandra Yes, that's what people always say.

Perhaps you would like to teach my class one day. When you teach teenagers all year you need a long summer holiday.

Catherine Hello. We haven't met before, have we?

Luke No, I don't think so.

Catherine I'm Catherine, I'm Peter's sister.

Luke Oh, hi, I'm Luke. I went to school with Peter.

Catherine Ah, Luke! You're the travel agent, aren't you?

Luke Yes, I am.

Catherine Peter's told me all about you.

Listen, can you recommend a cheap holiday? I'd like to go somewhere hot. And I want to go in August. But when I say cheap, I mean cheap. Oh and I can't fly...because I'm terrified of flying...

Woman Deborah, can I introduce you to an old friend of mine, Lucy.

Deborah Hi Lucy.

Lucy Nice to meet you.

Woman Lucy's my hairdresser.

Deborah Ah. You're just the person I want to talk to. Lucy, what do you think of my colour?

Lucy Well...

Deborah No, come on, tell me the truth. Is it too blond?

Lucy Er... no. I think it's fine.

Deborah Are you sure?

Woman Lucy, what would you like to drink?

Lucy Oh, a Diet Coke please.

Deborah Do you think my hair would look better shorter?

Woman Deborah, Lucy's not at work now.

Deborah Oh sorry.

Andrea Hi. I'm Andrea. Nice to meet you.

Simon Hello. My name's Simon.

Andrea What do you do Simon? No, don't tell me! Let me guess your job! Let me see. You look like a ... professional footballer.

Simon No... I'm a psychiatrist.

Andrea A psychiatrist! Ooh how fascinating!

Simon...? Are you analysing me?

Simon Er, no, I'm not. Excuse me, er, Andrea. I need to go to the bathroom.

5.5

Interviewer Good evening and welcome. In today's programme we're going to talk about singing. In the studio we have Martin, the director of a singing school in London and Gemma a student at Martin's school. Good morning to both of you.

Martin & Gemma Good morning.

Interviewer First Martin, can you tell us, why is it a good idea for people to learn to sing?

Martin First, because singing makes you feel good. And secondly because singing is very good for your health.

Interviewer Really? In what way?

Martin Well, when you learn to sing you need to learn to breathe correctly. That's very important. And you also learn to stand and sit correctly. As a result, people who sing are often fitter and healthier than people who don't.

Interviewer Are your courses only for professional singers?

Martin No, not at all. They're for everybody. You don't need to have any experience of singing. And you don't need to be able to read music.

Interviewer So how do your students learn to sing?

Martin They learn by listening and repeating. Singing well is really 95% listening.

Interviewer OK, Gemma. Tell us about the course. How long did it last?

Gemma Only one day. From ten in the morning to six in the evening.

Interviewer Could you already sing well before you started?

Gemma No, not well. But I have always liked singing. But I can't read music and I never thought I sang very well.

Interviewer So what happened on the course?

Gemma Well, first we did a lot of listening and breathing exercises and we learnt some other interesting techniques.

Interviewer What sort of things?

Gemma Well, for example we learnt that it is easier to sing high notes if you sing with a surprised look on your face!

Interviewer Oh really? Could you show us?

Gemma Well, I'll try.

Interviewer For those of you at home, I can promise you that Gemma looked very surprised. Were you happy with your progress?

Gemma Absolutely. At the end of the day we were singing in almost perfect harmony. It was amazing. In just one day we really were much better.

Interviewer Could you two give us a little demonstration?

Martin & Gemma Oh, OK.

I arrived at Kraków airport with Kasia, my guide. Test number one. I had to get a taxi to the hotel. I said to the taxi driver, in Polish, 'To the Holiday Inn hotel, please,' – Proszę do hotelu Holiday Inn. No problem. The driver understood me. But then he started talking to me in perfect English. I felt a bit stupid.

We got to the hotel, checked in, and then we went to the hotel bar for test number two.

A waitress came up to us and I said 'Proszę piwo', that is, a beer please. Then the waitress said something in Polish and I understood her! She said 'a big or small beer?' 'Big,' I said. I was so happy that I could understand her. I really enjoyed that beer.

Next we went out into the street for test three: asking for directions. I decided to ask for directions to a chemist, because I knew the word for chemist, apteka. I stopped a woman who looked friendly and I said, in Polish, 'Excuse me please, is there a chemist's near here? No problem. But then she started talking really fast and pointing. I tried to listen for left or right or anything I could understand but no. I couldn't understand anything. I was sure that Kasia was going to give me zero for this test!

I was feeling less confident now. We went back to the hotel for test four: making a phone call. Kasia gave me a phone number and told me to ask to speak to her friend. His name was Adam. I dialled the number. A woman answered the phone. 'Is Adam there?', I said hopefully. 'Adamie nie ma', she said. I understood that! Adam's not in. I wanted to say 'When will he be back?' but I could only say 'When home?' 'Kiedy domu?' And I didn't understand her answer. So I said thank you and goodbye very politely. Kasia smiled, so I thought, well, not bad.

Finally, test five: asking the time. I knew this test was going to be very hard. Numbers in Polish are incredibly difficult and I've always found telling the time is impossible. But I had a brilliant idea. I stopped a man in the street and said, 'Excuse me, what's the time?' I couldn't understand the answer but I just said, 'Sorry, can I see your watch please?' He showed it to me. Twenty past seven. Perfect!

How well did I do in the tests? Well, Kasia gave me five out of ten for language and eight for imagination. So can you learn a language in a month? Not Polish, definitely!

SA Can I help you?

Allie Yes, I really like this sweater. Do you have it in a medium?

SA Let's see... we have it in red in a medium.

Allie No, I want it in black.

SA Just a minute, I'll go and check. Here you are. A black medium. Do you want to try it on?

Allie No, thanks. I'm sure it'll be fine. How much is it?

SA 43.38.

Allie It says 39.99.

SA Yes, but that doesn't include sales tax – that's 8.5% extra.

Allie Oh, OK. Do you take MasterCard?

SA Yes, of course.

5.15

Mark Allie! You look great, as usual. How was your morning?

Allie Really good. First I went shopping, and then I went to the Museum of Modern Art.

Mark What did you think of it?

Allie It was wonderful. But I didn't have enough time to see it all. Never mind.

Mark Maybe next time.

Allie What a lovely evening!

Brad Hi, Allie. How was the shopping?

Allie Great, thanks.

Brad Hi Mark. And did you like the museum? I hope you didn't get lost again!

Mark Hey, I didn't know you two were friends already.

Allie We met this morning. I got lost. I was trying to find Union Square – and suddenly Brad appeared.

Brad So I took her to my favourite coffee shop.

Mark Allie, what would you like to drink?

Allie I'd like a cocktail please. A margarita.

Brad What a good idea. I'll have one too. Mark, could you get us a couple of margaritas?

Mark Oh, so now I'm the waiter, am I?

Brad So tell me about the museum, Allie. What was your favourite painting?

6.4

Interviewer OK, Michael, can you tell us what to do in these three situations? First what about the crocodile attack?

Michael Well, once a crocodile has seen you it will attack you, so doing nothing is not really an option. And a crocodile attacks so quickly that people never have time to swim to safety. The crocodile will try to get you in its mouth and take you under the water. Your only hope is to try to hit it in the eye or on the nose. If you did this and you were very lucky the crocodile would open its mouth and give you time to escape. But I have to say that it's very difficult, although not impossible, to survive a crocodile attack.

Interviewer What about the bear attack?

Michael When a bear attacks someone, their natural reaction is always to try to run away or to climb up a tree. But these are both bad ideas. Bears can run much faster than we can and they're also much better and faster at climbing trees.

The best thing to do in this situation would be to pretend to be dead. A bear usually stops attacking when it thinks that its enemy is dead and so, if you were lucky it would lose interest in you and go away.

Interviewer And finally, the bull attack?

Michael Well, if you were in the middle of a field, forget about running. Bulls can run incredibly fast. And don't shout or wave your arms because bulls react to movement and this will just make the bull come in your direction. The best thing to do is to try not to move, and just stay where you are, and then at the last moment to throw something, a hat or your shirt, away from you. If you were lucky, the bull would change direction to follow the hat or shirt and you'd be able to escape. By the way, it doesn't matter what colour the shirt is. It isn't true that bulls like red. They don't see colour, they only see movement.

Presenter Welcome to this morning's edition of What's the problem?. Today we're talking about friends, so if you have a problem with one of your friends, call us now. And if you're listening to the programme and you think you can help with any of the problems then just send an e-mail to our website. Our e-mail address is what.problem@radiotalk.com. Our first caller today is Barbara. Hello Barbara.

Barbara Hello.

Presenter What's the problem?

Barbara Well, I have a problem with a friend called Jonathan (that's not his real name). Well, Jonathan often goes out with me and my friends. The problem is that he's really mean.

Presenter Mean?

Barbara Yes, he never pays for anything. When we have a drink he always says he doesn't have any money or that he's forgotten his money. So in the end one of us always pays for him. At first we thought, 'Poor Jonathan, he doesn't have much money'. But it's not true. His parents work, and he works on Saturdays in a shop – so he must have some money. Do you think we should say something to him?

Presenter Thanks Barbara. I'm sure you'll soon get some e-mails with good advice. OK, our next caller is Kevin from Birmingham. Hello Kevin.

Kevin Hi.

Presenter What's the problem?

Kevin Yes. My problem is with my best friend. Well, the thing is, he's always flirting with my girlfriend.

Presenter Your best friend flirts with your girlfriend?

Kevin Yes, when the three of us are together he always says things to my girlfriend like, 'Wow! You look fantastic today' or 'I love your dress, Suzanna.' things like that. And when we're at parties he often asks her to dance.

Presenter Do you think he's in love with your girlfriend?

Kevin I don't know, but I'm really angry about it. What can I do?

Presenter Well, let's see if one of our listeners can help, Kevin. And our last caller is Catherine. OK Catherine, over to you. What's the problem?

Catherine Hello. I'm at university and I live on the university campus. I live in a flat and I share a room with this girl. She's really nice. I get on very well with her, but there's one big problem.

Presenter What's that?

Catherine She always borrows things from me without telling me.

Presenter What does she borrow?

Catherine Well, first it was CDs and books, but now she's started taking my clothes as well, sweaters, jackets, and things.

Yesterday she took a white sweater of mine and she didn't tell me. So when I wanted to wear it this afternoon it was dirty. I don't want to lose her as a friend but what should I do?

Presenter Thank you Catherine. So... if you can help Barbara, Kevin, or Catherine, e-mail us at...

Receptionist Hi. How can I help you?

Allie Do you have any painkillers? I have a headache.

Receptionist I'm sorry. We can't give our guests medicine. But we can call a doctor for you if you like.

Allie No, it's OK. I don't need a doctor. It's just a cold. But is there a chemist's near the hotel?

Receptionist Do you mean a pharmacy?

Allie Sorry, that's right, a pharmacy.

Receptionist Sure. There's one right across the street.

Allie Thank you.

Receptionist You're welcome.

6.17

Mark Bless you! Are you OK?

Allie It's just a cold. I had a bad headache this morning, but I feel better now.

Mark Listen. I'm really sorry about last night.

Allie What do you mean?

Mark At the party. I got kind of angry at Brad. He was really annoying me.

Allie Oh, I think he's very nice.

Mark Yeah, women always think so.

Allie Don't worry, Mark. Brad's not my type.

Mark So what is your type, Allie?

Allie You know what my type is. Dark hair, 34 years old, lives in San Francisco...

Mark Listen, tomorrow's your last day. I want to do something special. What would you like to do?

Listening

Allie I don't mind. You choose.

Mark How about a boat trip around the bay? We could do that in the morning, and then have a nice dinner in the evening.

Allie That sounds fantastic.

Mark It's too bad you can't stay longer.

Allie Yes, it's a pity – this week has gone so quickly. I feel I've just arrived and now I'm going home.

Mark Well, I'm going to make sure tomorrow is a really special day.

Interviewer What exactly is your phobia, Scott?

Scott Well, the medical name is Felinophobia or Gatophobia.

Interviewer And what does that mean exactly?

Scott It means I'm afraid of cats.

Interviewer Cats?

Scott Yes.

Interviewer How long have you had this phobia?

Scott Since I was a child.

Interviewer And how did it start?

Scott When I was five or six years old, I remember going to a friend's house and I saw a cat on the stairs. And the cat was looking at me, well staring at me. I went to touch it, and it bit me. And since then I've always been afraid of cats.

Interviewer What happens if you see a cat?

Scott Well, I start to feel very nervous, my hearts beats quickly. And I have to go away very quickly from where the cat is. For example, if I see a cat in the street, I always cross to the other side.

Interviewer What do you do?

Scott I'm a doctor.

Interviewer Is your phobia a problem for you in your work?

Scott Yes, sometimes. For example, if I go to a house and there is a cat I have to ask the people to put the cat in another room. I can't be in the same room as a cat.

Interviewer Have you ever had any treatment for your phobia?

Scott Yes, I've just started going to a therapist. I've had three sessions.

Interviewer How's it going?

Scott Well, now I can look at a photo of a cat without feeling nervous or afraid. And I can touch a toy cat. The next step will be to be in a room with a real cat.

Interviewer Do you think you will ever lose your phobia of cats?

Scott I hope so. I'm optimistic. Who knows, maybe one day I'll have a cat as a pet.

Presenter Good evening and welcome to Film of the week. Tonight we are going to see Sofia Coppola's film Lost in Translation. This film came out in 2003, and it gave the young film director her first Oscar nomination. Before it starts, Anthony, can you tell us a bit about her?

Anthony Well, of course as you know, Sofia Coppola is the daughter of Francis Ford Coppola, so you could say that she was born with a camera in her hand. She was born in New York in 1971 while her father was making the film The Godfather, and in fact she actually appeared in the film – she was the little baby in the baptism scene.

After she left school she decided to become an actress, but her career as an actress didn't last long. When her father made The Godfather part III, he gave his daughter a part in the film. She played Mary Corleone, the Godfather's daughter. But it was a disaster and the film critics wrote terrible things about her. So she stopped being an actress and she went to the California Institute of Art where she studied fine arts and photography. Then she decided to become a film director.

1999 was a really big year for her. She directed her first film, The Virgin Suicides, and this time the critics thought she was great. She also got married, to the film director Spike Jonze – but they separated after a few years.

And then in 2003 she made her next film, which is the one we're going to see now called Lost in Translation. Lost in Translation was the film which made Sofia Coppola famous. For this film she became the first American woman to be nominated for an Oscar for best director, although she didn't win it.

Presenter Thank you very much Anthony. And now, let's watch Lost in Translation.

7.6

Interviewer How old are you in the photograph, Melissa?

Melissa Twelve or thirteen, I think.

Interviewer Did you like school?

Melissa Not really.

Interviewer Why not?

Melissa Because I didn't like any of the subjects. Well, that's not quite true, I liked English, but that was the only lesson I used to look forward to. I didn't like maths, didn't like science at all, and I hated PE. I used to argue with the PE teacher all the time. She used to make us do impossible things, things we couldn't do, like climbing ropes and jumping over the horse. I think she just wanted to humiliate us.

Interviewer Were you a 'good girl' at school?

Melissa It depends what you mean by 'good'. I didn't smoke, I didn't use to write graffiti on the walls or anything like that. But I was a bit of a rebel. I used to break rules all the time, and of course the teachers didn't like that.

Interviewer What sort of rules did you break?

Melissa Well, the school was very strict about the school uniform – we had to wear a blue skirt, and the skirt had to cover our knees. I used to make the skirt shorter. And then I sometimes used to wear blue socks and a black sweater, instead of a grey sweater, and grey socks. The teachers used to get really angry; I just thought it was silly.

Interviewer What did you want to be when you were at school?

Melissa I wanted to be a lawyer.

Interviewer Why?

Melissa Well, there were a lot of American TV programmes and films about lawyers at the time, and I used to think it would be fun to argue with people all day.

Interviewer So why did you become a primary school teacher?

Lots of reasons. But I think the main reason is that both my parents were teachers and they both used to tell me, when you grow up and get a job don't be a teacher. So as I was a rebel, I did exactly the opposite.

7.11

Presenter Good afternoon, and welcome to another edition of Science Today. In today's programme we are going to hear about women inventors. When we think of famous inventors we usually think of men, people like Alexander Graham Bell, Guglielmo Marconi, Thomas Edison. But as Sally will tell us, many of the things which make our lives easier today were invented by women.

Sally That's absolutely right. Let's take the dishwasher for example. This was invented by a woman called Josephine Cochrane in 1886. She was a rich American who gave a lot of dinner parties. But she was annoyed that her servants used to break plates and glasses when they were washing them after the party. So, Josephine decided to try and invent a machine which could wash a lot of plates and glasses safely. Today the dishwasher is used by millions of people all over the world.

The car was invented by a man, but it was a woman, Mary Anderson, who in 1903 solved one of the biggest problems of driving. Until her invention, it was impossible for drivers to see where they were going when it was raining or snowing. The name of her invention? Windscreen wipers.

A fantastic invention that definitely improved the lives of millions of people was disposable nappies. They were invented by a woman called Marion Donovan in 1950. Anybody who has a small baby will know what a big difference disposable nappies make to our lives. Today more than 55 million nappies are used every day in the world.

A few years later in 1956, Bette Nesmith Graham was working as a secretary. She used to get very frustrated and angry when she made typing mistakes. In those days if you made a mistake you had to get a new sheet of paper and start again from the beginning. She had a brilliant idea, which was to use a white liquid to paint over mistakes. Her invention is called Tippex today. Mrs Graham was a divorced mother and her invention made her a very rich woman.

And finally... policemen, soldiers, and politicians all over the world are protected by something which was invented by a woman. In 1966 Stephanie Kwolek invented kevlar, a special material which was very light but incredibly strong, much stronger than metal. This material is used to make the bullet-proof vest. Her invention has probably saved thousands of lives.

Presenter Thanks very much Sally. So... if you thought that everything was invented by men, think again.

7.14

Mark Hi, Allie. How are you feeling today?

Allie Much better.

Mark Good. Are you going to be warm enough with just that sweater? It might be a little cold on the boat.

Allie I'll be fine. Are we going to walk to the bay?

Mark No, it's too far. It's better if we get a cab.

Allie How long does it take by cab?

Mark About ten minutes.

Allie And how long's the boat trip?

Mark I'm not sure. I think it's an hour. Why?

Allie Well, I have to be back here by 1.00 – I'm expecting an important phone call.

Mark Not from Brad, I hope?

Allie Well, actually... No, of course not!

From the New York office.

Mark OK. Let's go.

7.17

Mark So, what do you think of San Francisco?

Allie It's beautiful, Mark. I love it.

Mark Better than London?

Allie Not better. Different.

Mark Do you think you could live here?

Allie No, I don't think so.

Mark Oh, Why?

Allie Well, it's a long way from London. I think I'd miss all my family and friends.

Mark Could you live somewhere else – but in Europe?

Allie Maybe. Why do you ask?

Mark Oh, no reason. I just wondered.

Tannoy On your left you can see the island of Alcatraz.

Mark Look, can you see that building? That used to be the prison, but it was closed in 1963. It's a museum now.

Allie Where are we going for dinner tonight?

Mark It's a surprise.

Allie I'm really looking forward to it.

Mark Me too.

Allie Brr, I'm cold.

Mark Do you want to borrow my coat?

Allie No. It's OK. I'm going to miss you, Mark.

Mark Hey, excuse me! Could you take a photo of us, please?

Man Sure. Are you ready?

Allie Ready.

Man Say cheese!

Newsreader Last Friday Sven, a company lawyer from Stockholm was looking forward to a relaxing two days in the mountains. He and his wife had booked a skiing weekend in a luxury hotel. But the weekend didn't work out exactly as they had planned. Sven worked until late on Friday evening. His office was on the 12th floor. When he finished, at 8 o'clock, he locked his office and got into the lift... and he didn't get out again until Monday morning!

Sven I pressed the button for the ground floor and the lift started going down but then stopped. I pressed the button again but nothing happened. I pressed the alarm and shouted but nobody heard me. Most people had already gone home. I tried to phone my wife but my mobile didn't work in the lift... I couldn't do anything. I just sat on the floor and hoped maybe somebody would realize what had happened. But on Saturday and Sunday I knew nobody would be there. I slept most of the time to forget how hungry I was.

Newsreader Meanwhile Sven's wife, Silvia was waiting for her husband to come home.

Silvia I was very worried when he didn't come home on Friday evening and I couldn't understand why his mobile wasn't going. I phoned the police and they looked for him but they couldn't find him anywhere. I thought maybe he was with another woman.

Newsreader So Sven was in the lift the whole weekend from Friday evening until Monday morning. At eight o'clock, when the office workers arrived, they phoned the emergency number and somebody came and repaired the lift.

Sven I was very happy to get out. I hadn't eaten since Friday afternoon and I was very hungry. It's lucky that I am not claustrophobic because the lift was very small. The first thing I did was to phone my wife to say that I was OK.

Newsreader Sven will soon be the fittest man in his office – from now on he's going to take the stairs every day – even though it's 12 floors.

8.6

Interviewer Hello. Could I ask you a few questions? We're doing some research.

David Sure. What's it about?

Interviewer Well, we want to find out if you are a morning or evening person.

David OK, fine.

Interviewer OK and what's your name?

David David Cope.

Interviewer And, what do you do, David?

David I'm a magazine editor.

Interviewer OK, and when do you work?

David Monday to Friday, eight till four.

Interviewer What time do you get up in the morning?

David 5.45. I have to get up early because I start work at 8 and it takes me an hour to get to work.

Interviewer What time do you go to bed?

David Probably around 10.00.

Interviewer If you have an exam, do you study best in the morning, afternoon, or at night?

David Let me think, I haven't done an exam for a long time but when I was a student I used to study better in the morning.

Interviewer Right and...if you do exercise when do you prefer to do it?

David In the morning, definitely. I love going for a long walk or cycling. It's great early in the morning because you feel that you're the only person in the world who's awake at that time.

Interviewer Do you like your working hours?

David I don't mind them. Finishing work early means I can pick up my daughter from school, and look after her in the afternoons. It's true that I can't really have a social life during the week, because I go to bed at ten, but that's OK.

Interviewer Right, and the last question. Would you like to change your working hours?

David Yes, I would. I'd like to work four days a week, maybe working more hours in the day and have a three-day weekend. Then I could spend three full days a week with my family.

Interviewer That's great. Thank you very much for your time.

8.13

Receptionist Good afternoon. How can I help you?

Allie Hi. I'm leaving tomorrow morning very early. Could you prepare my bill so I can pay this evening?

Receptionist Of course.

Allie And could you order me a cab?

Receptionist For what time?

Allie My flight's at 9.15, so I have to be at the airport at 7.15.

Receptionist Then you'll need a cab at six o'clock. I'll order one for you.

Allie Thanks. Oh, and has there been a phone call for me?

Receptionist Oh yes. There's a message for you. Can you call this number in New York?

Allie Right. Thanks.

Receptionist You're welcome.

 A post office is a place where you can buy stamps.

⚠ You can use that instead of who or which.

It's a thing which / that connects two computers.

- Use relative clauses to explain what a place, thing, or person is or does.
That's the woman who won the lottery last year.

- Use do / does to make questions and negatives.
Do I have to go? NOT Have I to go?

A Must and have to are very similar, but there is a small difference. We normally use have to for a general obligation (a rule at work or a law). We normally use must when the speaker imposes the obligation (for example, a teacher to students or a parent to children). But often you can use either.

must / mustn't

<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	You must do your homework tonight. She must tidy her room before she goes out.
<input type="checkbox"/>	You mustn't smoke in class. They mustn't leave their bags here.

Contraction: mustn't = must not
